ORDER

VALERIE CAPRONI, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS an initial conference is currently scheduled for May 29, 2020;

WHEREAS the Government has indicated that it will waive service and enter an appearance in this case, due to Plaintiff's pro se status, Ex. A; and

WHEREAS the Government has requested that the initial conference be adjourned until after its answer deadline, Ex. A;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the initial conference is adjourned to July 31, 2020, at 10:00 A.M. The Government is directed to file the parties' joint pre-conference submissions no later than July 23, 2020. A copy of this Order has been mailed to Plaintiff by chambers.

SO ORDERED.

Dear Mr. Cheung,

Our Office has no record of receiving service in this case. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i). In light of the plaintiff's pro se status, we will enter an appearance today despite the lack of service so that we can obtain a copy of the complaint from the docket and request that we be provided the sixty days afforded under the Federal Rules for our response (i.e., July 21, 2020). We respectfully request that the Court adjourn the conference scheduled for May 29, 2020 to a date after the government's response is due.

Thank you,
Simon
